

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's parents; on the 10th inst. by the Rev E. W. Twining, MR. GEO. HATCH, of Ashland, Saunders County Neb. formerly of Warsaw, N. Y., to MISS MABLE MICKLE, of Washington, Washington Co. Iowa.

Thus do they one by one sever the relationship with the once bold band of bachelors of this place, and go hence into that future state, leaving the few remaining ones to mourn their loss, while they grieve over their own destitute and forlorn condition, and long for something which fate has deprived them of, and for which it seems they can never hope. Good bye George, thou hast done well, and while we drop a sympathetic tear in your behalf we say, joy go with you, and may you Hatch up and secure Mickle happiness and wealth for you and yours.
